

Family Preparedness Plan

Every family should have a plan in case of an emergency. For immigrant families, that could mean making plans for immigration emergencies.

Our Volunteer Attorneys Can Help Families:

- ✓ Develop a child care plan
- ✓ Understand short- and long-term immigration options
- ✓ Understand the risks and benefits of each option
- ✓ Find trusted legal and immigration help and resources in Alameda County

Child Care Plans:

- ✓ Help parents plan ahead for alternate caregivers if they can't be there
- ✓ Create clear communication between parents, caregivers, and schools
- ✓ Protect families and parental rights

Legal Access provides free direct legal assistance to Alameda County's low-income litigants by mobilizing volunteer attorneys to provide pro bono service.

✉ beth@acbanet.org

☎ (510) 302-2227